ROSE CULTURE

PLANTING

Roses are generally planted in the early Spring, although excellent results follow planting in October and November. If one has not had the opportunity to get ready in the early Spring, pot grown Roses can be used all during the Summer months. Roses are heavy feeders and the beds should be well prepared, using well rotted manure. Set the plants 18 inches to 2 feet apart, and bury the collar or bud about 1 inch below the surface of the ground. Spread the roots and work the soil in amongst them, finally treading firmly. Water thoroughly after planting. A Summer mulch of Imported Peat Moss is highly recommended.

PRUNING

New plants should be cut back to within 6 inches of the ground. Old plants should be pruned in April, one-half to two-thirds of the previous season's growth.

PROTECTION

Hill the earth up around the plants to a depth of 6 or 8 inches, and when this is frozen, cover bed with strawy manure or leaves.

Use "Evergreen" as a spray for Aphis and Fungtrogen for "Black-spot." The use of Terogen as an Autumn-Winter ground dressing destroys the spores of most fungous diseases as well as the larvae of insects.

PEONIES

Everybody enjoys the glory of the Peony season, when the giant, fragrant flowers adorn almost every country dooryard. But the old time varieties have been much improved, and the better sorts now available are revelations of beauty and abundance. Peonies are among the hardiest of plants and are exceedingly easy to grow, requiring only sunshine and water during the growing season, and a deep, rich soil. When enriching the ground, fresh manure should not be placed near the roots. Planting too deep is a frequent cause of shy flowering, and therefore the roots should be planted so that the eyes are 2 to 3 inches below the surface.

CHOICE NAMED VARIETIES

Each 75c., doz. $8.00, 100 $60.00 except where price is noted

Baroness Schroeder. Rose type; late flowering. Considered the best all-around Peony. Sweet-scented baby pink blooms shading to white. A splendid variety for the garden and cutting.

Couronne d'Or. Large, flat, semi-rose type. Pure white, with a circle of bright yellow stamens that suggest its name "Crown of Gold." Medium tall, free bloomer. Late midseason.

Duchesse de Nemours. Early. A lovely pure white variety with sulphur white collar; medium size; fragrant.

Edulis Superba. Large, loose crown of brilliant mauve pink with collar striped lilac. Very vigorous, upright, free blooming and early. Deliciously fragrant.

Ella C. Kelway. Soft lavender pink.

Eugenie Verdier. A fragrant, midseason variety of a delicate Hydrangea pink shade. Large blooms of semi-rose type. Long stemmed.

Festiva Maxima. Very large, full, rose type blooms having pure white centers and petals tipped with bright crimson. The most popular white variety for cut flowers.

Floral Treasure. Midseason, pink. Old favorite, cut flower variety.

Fragrans. Free blooming; red.

Frances Willard. A perfectly formed flower that is found among the winning classes in every show-room. A very large, semi-rose type of bloom, often having a raised, cup-shaped center inclosing golden stamens. Opens an exquisite blush white, with an occasional carmine touch, changing to pure white. Of good substance and a fine cut flower variety. Late midseason. $1.50.

Germaine Bigot. Very large, midseason to late; a royal variety. Most excellent pink.

La France. Soft appleblossom pink, deeper at the base of petals; fragrant. Flowers of largest size, globular, perfectly double, rose type. A strong, erect grower. $4.00.

Le Cygne (The Swan). "One of the three finest Peonies." The curving petals of this magnificent flower are arranged like the feathers on a swan's wing. "Symmetrical, globular, of great size, fragrant, free blooming, and milk white." "Le Cygne stands by itself." It is unquestionably the finest white and received the highest rating in the American Peony Society's referendum. $4.00.

Longfellow. Perhaps the most brilliant of all the red zonies. Golden stamens show around the center petals. Late midseason. $2.50.

Louis Van Houtte. Medium sized bloom, semi-rose type; deep carmine rose, with fiery reflex; fragrant. Medium height.

Mme. Crousse. Its flowers are medium to large in size, globular crown type, and the prominent guard petals and a few of the collar petals reflex to the stem on well developed blooms. In color, it is uniform, pure white, with the center petals occasionally flecked crimson. The plant is of medium height and slightly spreading habit, with strong stems. One of the best of the older white Peonies that is worthy of a place in any garden and suitable for landscape.

Mme. Boulanger. Fragrant soft pink shaded lilac.

Mme. Lemoine. Very soft pink ringed carmine.

Marie Crousse. Bomb type; midseason. Color soft salmon pink shaded a glossy satiny lilac. A most desirable Peony.

Meissonier. Very brilliant crimson.

Mons. Jules Elie. Bomb type; early midseason. King of all Peonies. Color an ideal, glossy lilac pink, shading to a deeper rose at the base, the entire flower overlaid with a sheen of silver. Ideal for cut flowers. Each $1.00.

Mrs. Carew. Large, delicate silvery blush.

Officinalis rosea plena. Soft bright pink, very early. Each $1.00.

Officinalis rubra plena. Large double flowers, dark crimson. Very early. Each $1.00.

Richard Carvel. Immense, globular bomb. Flower bright, all one shade of crimson. Guard petals large, broad and prominent. Early, tall, very stout stems, annual and profuse bloomer. Delicate fragrance. The best early dark red. $2.00.

Rubra Superba. Brilliant deep crimson blooms borne very late. A rose type, making a most magnificent show. A good, strong grower.

Solange. Ranked with Le Cygne and Walter Faxon as the three best Peonies. "Until the lover of Peonies knows Solange, his life is wasted, bare, uninteresting, impoverished, and lonely beyond all words to tell. Its flower is high built, compact, and composed of large, thick petals which closely overlap. The color is deep cream, tinged with amber throughout, with a touch of soft, salmon pink glowing from its heart." $2.50.

Suzette. Superb bengal rose.

Walter Faxon. Ranked with Solange and Le Cygne as the three finest Peonies. "Here is the most delectable hue of pink displayed by any of the Peonies outside of the tree Peonies." It is a free-blooming variety and grows strongly. It is very scarce. $2.50.

Red, White, or Pink Peonies, Unnamed. Each 35c., doz. $3.50. Not less than 6 at the dozen price.
